Memorandum

To: John Dombroskie, Director of Purchasing & Business Services
From: Robert Reece, Manager – Inventory Control and Warehouse Operations
Date: August 20, 2015
Subject: Administrative Concerns

As I stated during the Art Paper Bid on August 19, 2015, the awarded bid should be based on lowest total prices and also based on Administrative concerns. The Administrative concerns are listed as follows:

1. Administrative cost saving using one supplier for the bid versus using multiple vendors. This savings will effect Warehouse Operations, Purchasing, Accounts Payable
2. Minimum buy requirements using one supplier will protect ECSD from being required to make multiple minimum buys from multiple suppliers. This will enable ECSD to purchase only the items needed, reducing the unnecessary expense of stocking and eliminating unneeded inventory, while limiting the item's possible obsolescence.
3. In addition, we can get a better price from our vendors by bundling all the items for an aggregate cost, as opposed to purchasing line items from individual vendors. This gives us the full benefit of the buying power of ECSD.

If you have any concerns or questions about this matter, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Robert Reece
